Do that by creating a gross sales page for the new book, but don't embody a worth on that page. As an alternative, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other strategy is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different prices on every page. Be certain your gross sales copy is exactly the identical on every web page, and includes your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum value is.

Finally, if you happen to've written a guide that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your e book will usher in both visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what downside your e-book solves and what the benefits of your 2545 guide will be to the shoppers who buy it.
