An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought an e book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new ebook, but don't embrace a value on that page. As a substitute, add plenty of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on every page. Be sure your sales copy is exactly the identical on every web page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and sales of your book. It will let you know what your optimum worth is.

Finally, if you've written a book that solves a downside or presents a new method, your book will herald each site visitors and profits.
